8 New Outdoor Dining Spaces in NYC for Summer 2016

Indian Accent

Le Parker Meridien's newest Indian import from chef Manish Mehrotra just opened its outdoor patio for the season. The alfresco space features a special à la carte menu with dishes like ghee roast lamb with roomali roti pancakes and a tasting of papads with wild boar pickle, prawn balchao and house chutneys. Drinks include signatures like the Proper Copper: kaffir-infused vodka, ginger and orange blossom water.
