

22 Worthy Options for Thanksgiving Day in New York City

A dining guide for November 23, 2017

Thanksgiving menus in this gloriously overpriced city are often a ripoff. But here's a map of 22 wonderful New York City restaurants that will be open on Thanksgiving Day and are offering inventive menus or great value. Majority are prix fixe tasting menus (with a few a la carte options), some have a unique take on the day's cuisine, and others will satisfy a traditional Americana version of the holiday. One thing all these restaurants have in common: pie.

Indian Accent

Chef Manish Mehrotra is serving a multi-course prix fixe menu that for $95 per person comes with roasted turkey pinwheels with sage, paneer, and a chile tomato glaze; paneer and sage kofta; cumin maple potatoes; pumpkin and cranberry kulcha with sage butter; and much more. The full menu is here. Indian Accent will be open in Midtown from 2 p.m. until 8 p.m.
