

INDIAN ACCENT, NEW DELHI SHALL MOVE TO THE LODHI

New Delhi: Indian Accent, the award-winning restaurant at The Manor, New Delhi, will open at The Lodhi end October in the space previously occupied by the restaurant On the Waterfront.

Indian Accent, which opened in 2009 at The Manor, achieved both critical and popular acclaim in India as well as overseas.

The alcohol service at The Manor has been suspended since the past few months following the Honorable Supreme Court's judgement on the sale of alcohol within 500 meters of state and national highways.

The original location at The Manor will host a new restaurant. More details on the new concept will be shared soon. Indian Accent at The Manor continues to take reservations till then.

Rohit Khattar, Chairman, Old World Hospitality, says, "The Manor has been an incredible setting and home for Indian Accent since its inception. The team is excited to open in a beautiful, larger space at The Lodhi. The new space will allow us to expand our food and vision to a wider audience and will also feature a 'Chef's Table' in the future where Chef Manish Mehrotra will explore theme-based menus in an adventurous new format. We have exciting plans for Indian Accent's former space at The Manor too, with a soon to be announced concept."

Chef Manish Mehrotra, Corporate Chef, Indian Accent, says, "We are excited for Indian Accent's journey ahead at The Lodhi, where we will replicate the experience we are proud to have delivered to all our guests. Indian Accent will re-launch with a menu featuring our guest favourites and Indian Accent classics from our early years too."

Dinaz Madhukar, Senior Vice President, DLF Luxury Retail and Hospitality said "We are delighted to partner with Old World Hospitality and bring 'Indian Accent' to The Lodhi. This much-celebrated restaurant will offer another superlative dining experience to all our guests. We believe that this addition will complement The Lodhi's other F&B offerings and consolidate the hotel's prestige on the Capital's gastronomic map."

Indian Accent at The Lodhi, scheduled to launch end October, will be open 7 days a week and shall serve lunch 12 noon onwards, early dinner at 7pm and late dinner at 9:45pm.

The restaurant will seat over 100 people including three private dining spaces.

About Indian Accent

Indian Accent is an Old World Hospitality concept and offers an inventive approach to Indian cuisine. The original restaurant in New Delhi opened in 2009 at The Manor, New Delhi to significant acclaim for its path breaking approach to contemporary Indian food. Indian Accent's menu explores progressive ideas in Indian cuisine while maintaining traditional integrity. Chef Manish Mehrotra reinterprets nostalgic Indian dishes with an openness towards global techniques and influences.

Indian Accent in New Delhi has won several awards and global recognition, including being the only restaurant from India on the World's 50 Best list in 2015, 2016, 2017, and being awarded the San Pellegrino Best Restaurant in India on Asia's 50 Best list for each of those years. It has also been rated the No.1 Restaurant in India for 2014, 2015 & 2016 by Trip Advisor.

Indian Accent in New York opened in 2016 to critical and popular acclaim, including being ranked among the Best Restaurants of the Year by several publications including Zagat, Time Out, and Eater. Indian Accent, New Delhi shall shift to a larger abode at The Lodhi, New Delhi in October and thereafter will open in London late 2017. For more details, please visit www.indianaccent.com
