Indian Accent

Midtown West

Straight from New Delhi to the Parker Meridien is Chef Manish Mehrotra's first international outpost of his acclaimed restaurant that focuses on family-style Indian food with global ingredients. It's fine-dining for sure, but that doesn't mean the food isn't seriously authentic. Standout small plates include the sweet pickle ribs and duck chettinad, but there are also plenty of must-try mains like dal gosht and tamarind sea bass.
